

GrainFlow Intraday Cash Pricing

Rules:

- Not mandatory to post a price the night before
- You can change your price up or down during the day
- Price change is effective the next hour e.g. if you upload your new price at 9:20am then it will be valid as at 10:00am (AEDT)
- The price that is valid at the time of sale will be assigned to the ticket.
- You can withdraw your price immediately at any time (functionality exists in our acquirer portal – see separate document for instructions)
- Report available to track your price changes (Daily Cash Pricing Report)
- Until advised a pricing file must be uploaded to post cash prices (manual Maintain Prices area currently under development).
- This is for same day deliveries (warehouse transfer for prior day deliveries not permitted)
- Monitor purchases via the Acquirer Receivables by Date Report
